Atmos

Hi Pinksilver. Since I'm not a fullblooded Deep house DJ I don't know if I'm gonna give you the right feedback you really need. What I can do is just listen to the promo and give you a all in all feedback of how this release touches me, Positive or negative. Without going in on details I don't know shit about, If you know what I mean. PSDTL004 feels to me like a really professional bar sound. Seriously after listening a while and doing something else meanwhile I found myself dancing along the tunes. It made me remember what type of climate the mediterranean countries have on the summer halfyear and on top of that really seeing myself on that beachbar cooling down from the midday sun with a nice 4€ Frappe in my hand :) Yes, I believe in this release. First I thought none of the songs has anything significant in them but then I realised it's the 4€ frappe that is the significant. This type of music is just for mixing and the DJ is supposed to create a significant feeling with his whole set, not just one song. All in all good quality stuff (5 of 10)
Fault Day - Original Mix 5/10

Chris Source (Underworld, Vendetta, Sprout)

Really nice tracks! My faves are Fault Day (Original) and V-Sexion Raybrith! Thanks
